The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Saturday September 20. to Tuesday September 23. 1735.

Hanover, September 28, N. S.

ON the 21ſt the King came from Herenhauſen to this Place, where his Majeſty intends to reſide till his Departure for England. On the 22d the King took a general Review of the two Regiments of Horſe, one Regiment of Dragoons, and five Regiments of Foot, which were ſome Time ago ordered to come into this Neighbourhood for that Purpoſe. On the 23d the two Regiments of Horſe, and that of Dragoons paſſed in Review ſeparately before the King, went through their Evolutions on Horſeback, diſmounted, formed into Battallions, performed their Exerciſe and Firings, remounted, and marched by his Majeſty in Squadrons. On the 24th the King reviewed the five Regiments of Foot alſo ſeparately, which performed their Exerciſe, Evolutions and Firings; after which they drew up in a Line, and marched by his Majeſty in Diviſions. His Majeſty was extremely well pleaſed with the fine Appearance the ſeveral Regiments made, and with the exact and regular Performance of their Exerciſes. The Count de Seinſheim, Miniſter of State of the Elector of Bavaria, and his Envoy Extraordinary to the King, having, on the 25th, obtained his Audience of Leave of his Majeſty, ſet out the next Morning on his Return to Munich; as did alſo the Baron de Haaſlang, Chamberlain of the ſaid Elector, who had accompanied the ſaid Count de Seinſheim hither. On the 26th M. de Hammerſtein, Privy Councellor of the Elector of Cologne, and his Envoy at this Court, delivered his Credential Letters, and was admitted to an Audience of his Majeſty. The ſame Day the Troops which had been reviewed by his Majeſty in this Neighbourhood, ſet out on their Return to their former reſpective Quarters.

Paris, Sept. 28, N. S. Letters from Italy bring an Account, that the French Troops had ſeized in the Venetian Territories 500000 Rations of Hay, and 6000 Sacks of Corn, which were deſigned for the Imperial Army; at which Proceeding the Venetians are very uneaſy, and have reſolved to make the ſtrongeſt Repreſentations againſt it.

Hague, Sept. 30, N. S. The States of Holland ſeparated on the 24th Inſtant, and have appointed to meet again on the 5th of next Month. It is confirmed that Orders are come to Bruſſels for providing Quarters for 40000 Imperialiſts in the Auſtrian Netherlands, and that the neceſſary Diſpoſitions are actually making accordingly.

Whitehall, Sept. 5, 1735.

Whereas a Letter, ſubſcribed Tob. Swill, dated London the 19th of Auguſt laſt, has been received by Edward Boughton, Eſq; directed to him at Cawſton, in the County of Warwick, threatning him, if he did not comply with what was therein mentioned in leſs than a Week, he himſelf, his Houſe, Out-Buildings, Cattle, Corn, and Fiſh-ponds, ſhould be utterly deſtroyed: Her Majeſty, for the better diſcovering and bringing to Juſtice the Perſon or Perſons concerned in ſending the ſaid Letter, is pleaſed to promiſe her moſt gracious Pardon to any of them, who ſhall diſcover his Accomplice or Accomplices, ſo as he or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof. HOLLES NEWCASTLE.

And as a further Encouragement to ſuch Diſcovery, the ſaid Edward Boughton does hereby promiſe, That whoever ſhall diſcover the Perſon or Perſons who ſent or directed the ſending of the ſaid Letter, ſo as he or they may be convicted thereof, ſhall, upon ſuch Conviction, receive as a Reward, the Sum of Twenty Guineas; to be paid by Michael Teſmond, in Croſs-ſtreet, near Hatton-Garden, London, or by Mr. Edward Boughton, at Cawſton in Warwickſhire.

Michael Teſmond.

Sept. 6, 1735. For a farther Encouragement for diſcovering the Authors of certain Threatning Letters lately ſent to Mr. Boughton of Cawſton, I promiſe a Reward of Thirty Guineas, over and above the Twenty Guineas Reward offered by Mr. Boughton.
